Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Rev. W. B. Dukeshire returned home Monday night from Lyndonville camp meeting.

Arrangements for the Nehemiah Guild banquet will be made in a few days.

Services will be resumed at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sabbath. The reopening sermon will be preached at 10:45 by the pastor. The Sunday school will open up again for work at 12. The Epworth League will hold a rally service at 7 o'clock. The extensive work for the beautifying of the church going on for the last two months is now complete. With a new carpet and cushions recovered, with pews and woodwork cleaned and varnished, with walls and ceiling refrescoed in every part, the interior presents the appearance of a new church.

THE BANKERS AT BARTON.

The third annual summer meeting of the Vermont State Bankers' association was held in Barton last week Wednesday, the visitors being the guests of the Barton Savings Bank and Trust Company, H. R. Cutler, president. About 65 members and visiting bankers were present.

In the afternoon the association enjoyed a band concert given by the Barton Cornet band and a ball game between the Barre Italian Athletics and Barton team which was a very exciting one, resulting in favor of Barre by a score of 4 to 1. After the ball game some visitors enjoyed a motor boat cruise about Crystal lake while others made themselves at home at the club house of Le Beau Lac club.

The business meeting was called at 5 p. m., with Frederick H. Farrington of Brandon, president of the association, presiding. Prayer was offered by Rev. W. A. Warner and an address of welcome given by F. W. Baldwin, one of the vice-presidents of the Barton bank. Mr. Baldwin made the Clark, King and Kindred Families Meet.

The ninth annual reunion of the Clark, King and Kindred Families' association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Merriam Thursday, August 17. The day was an ideal one in every respect. One hundred twenty-six were present. Tables were set on the lawn for over one hundred. After dinner the meeting was called to order by the president, A. C. Clark; prayer was offered by Dr. E. W. Clark; L. W. Merriam welcomed them to his home in a few well chosen words. S. N. Clark gave a speech of welcome in behalf of the association in his usual cordial and interesting manner, remarks sparkling with wit and humor were also made by Dr. E. W. Clark, Dr. C. W. Clark, Armour Clark, James King, E. D. Jacques and Mr. Pillsbury, who also recited a poem. The meeting was interspersed with pleasant remarks by the president. The secretary and treasurer gave their reports. Letters and cards were received from friends in Iowa, Colorado, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York and Massachusetts. Mrs. Hattie (King) Bassett of Rushmore, Minn., invited the association to meet with her in 1912. The officers elected for the coming year

Woodmen at Craftsbury.

The annual outing of the Northern Vermont Log Rolling association took place at Craftsbury Wednesday of last week with about 500 present. The sports were run off in the morning and included a log rolling contest, won by Irasburg, tug-of-war, won by Craftsbury and a competitive drill in which Albany took first prize, $10, and Craftsbury second, $5. The judges in the drill were Benjamin Gates, Harry Park and George F. Buswell of Montpelier.

After dinner served in the Woodmen's hall at Craftsbury village there was a parade to the grounds and several addresses were made by members of the order. Hon. Horace F. Graham of Craftsbury gave an address of welcome and F. H. Gleason of St. Johnsbury responded. Other speakers were A. O. Palmer of Burlington, state deputy and Benjamin Gates of Montpelier, state lecturer.

Birch Hill camp of Albany presented the drama, "The Ranchman," in a most pleasing manner in the evening at a packed house and the dance after the play was attended by fully 40 couples. Sawyer's orchestra rendered music. The outing was a grand success.

Schools Open September 5.

Barton academy and graded schools open Tuesday, September 5, with the following corps of teachers. Principal, H. J. Stannard; assistant principal, C. L. Erwin; second assistant principal, Miss Kate Ferrin; grammar room, Miss Renfrew; grades six and seven, Mrs. C. C. W. Heath; grades four and five, Miss Sadie Corley; grades two and three, Mrs. Jennings; first grade, Miss Wellmar. Miss Corley in grades four and five is the only change in the faculty. Miss Corley is a Barton girl, a graduate of the academy and is well known. She has had several years' experience in the West Derby schools and has been very successful.

Post-office and Store Entered.

The post-office and store of L. S. Collins at Greensboro Bend was broken into Friday night. Entrance was first made through the back door into the back store by reaching in through the cat hole in the door and sliding out the bar that held it. Entrance from the back store to the post-office and main store was made by cutting a hole in the panel of the door sufficiently large to admit the hand and slide back the bolt. Who the parties were is still a mystery. The only article yet missing are a small amount of chocolates and tobacco. Mr. Collins is confident that the burglar was some one well acquainted with the premises.

Church Congregation Turned Out and Extinguished Fire.

Sunday forenoon fire was discovered in the grist and shingle mill of Henry Elliott at Morgan Center. The fire had made considerable headway, having burned through a partition and had got into a pile of shingle waste. While the few who gathered first held it in check word was sent to the church, where services were being held when the entire congregation turned out and the fire was quickly gotten under control. It was a narrow escape from a serious fire as several houses are near the mill.

BARTON WINS RUBBER

Takes Tie from Orleans 2 to 1 in Exciting Game. Other Ball News.

The Barre Italian Athletic team, which played Barton on their home grounds Wednesday of last week, was probably the fastest team ever seen on the Barton grounds. They played ball every minute, were good hitters and fielders. They were simply a little too much team for Barton, who played a good game and were fortunate both in getting their run and in keeping the visitors down to four. Following is the score.

MAY FLY TO BOSTON

Aviator Martin Considering Such a Trip at Close of Fair. Big Crowd in Spite of Rain.

The 22d annual Orleans County fair is going full blast with every prospect of this being a banner year in many respects. James V. Martin, the noted Harvard aviator, arrived Monday and his machine came Monday evening and was erected yesterday and placed on the grounds ready for flights this afternoon and tomorrow, and it is rumored that Mr. Martin is considering flying from here to Boston to the great aviation meet that opens on the Harvard field Saturday, where he is entered. With Mr. Martin is Albert Fileaux, mechanic. Mr. Fileaux is a noted aeroplane mechanic, and was the first passenger to cross the English channel in an aeroplane. W. S. Howell, an amateur aviator, also accompanies Mr. Martin. The machine is a Graham-White Baby Farm machine with a 50 H. P. seven cylinder Gnome engine. The wing spread of the planes is 27 feet. It is said there are only about a half dozen machines like this in existence, although to the novice it appears like other machines. Mr. Martin will make flights tomorrow and will carry a passenger this afternoon.

Indian makeup and dressed in wardrobe made by genuine Sioux on their reservation. The usual dance will be given after the show.
